Affordability Analysis

1. Insert your income and expenses in each column. (Multiply each line item for annual number). If you are unsure how much your rent and utilities will be, leave those items blank and do not calculate totals.
2. If you have arrears or are filling this form out for arrears purposes, you must provide the Minimum Arrears Payable.
3. After filling out each box, add up the totals.
4. Your income should exceed your cost of living expenses in order to maintain your cost of living.
